

Derek Sherony

Graduate Architect / 3 Years at CDA

Profile

Derek Sherony first joined Chris Dawson Architect in 2019 while pursuing his bachelor's degree in architecture from Thomas Jefferson University. After interning with us for three years and making numerous study models, he started full-time as a graduate architect in the Spring of 2022. Derek's architectural interests reside in historic preservation, adaptive reuse, and sustainable design so that as architects, we can build for the future.
